

RCO BOOTCAMP

Recovery Community
Organization (RCO)
Development Training

Statewide Virtual Training
Sept 14 - 16, 2020

FACES & VOICES OF RECOVERY

Owen Dougherty
Adjunct Faculty
National Recovery Institute

VIRTUAL | FREE | REGISTRATION REQUIRED

3-day Online Training | 11 - 5pm ET

An RCO is a non-profit organization or program led by the addiction recovery community providing advocacy, education and non-clinical peer-based recovery support services.

Daily Schedule:

11:00 am Start/Introduction	02:45 pm Break (30 Minutes)
11:30 am Module 1	03:15 pm Module 3
12:30 pm Lunch (60 minutes)	04:45 pm Closing Discussion
01:30 pm Module 2	05:00 pm End

Virtual Platform:

The training will be conducted using the video-based platform where participants will interact with and engage with the presenter and other attendees. For questions about using the virtual technology, contact us at nri@facesandvoicesofrecovery.org.

Registration:

visit us at facesandvoicesofrecovery.org/news-and-events
or click here!

Kristen Aja
Sr. Project Coordinator
Faces & Voices of Recovery

TOPICS COVERED:

- RCO Innovations
- RCO Start-Up
- Board Governance
- Peer Leadership Development
- Sustainability
- Strategic Planning
- Ethical Issues
- Risk Management
- Effective Advocacy
- Organizational Wellness
- Compassion Fatigue

IN COLLABORATION WITH:

Hosted by Faces & Voices of Recovery. A project of the Florida Recovery Project with support from the Florida Department of Children & Families